

KELLY'S WINE
COLLECTION
2014

“A Cellar Full of Surprises”

With the mission of picking the very best for the Kelly's Wine List, there is only one alternative: meeting the producers! Direct contact with each producer is very enriching, since the wines tend to reflect the personality of those who produce them, in an interesting synergy between terroir, the micro climate and the land area where the grapes are planted, and the human intervention represented by the wine producer. I have met with 90% of the Wine producers in our 2014 collection and believe me there is no shortage of personality and passion!

In recent years there has been a huge movement towards organic and Biodynamic wines, considered by the skeptics as a mere marketing device! The core value of biodynamic farming involves working with nature, using only natural products and encouraging diversity with insects, animals, crops and soils, where the daily activities of planting, pruning, bottling or harvesting the crop are planned using the lunar calendar. In the initial years I was cynical of these tree-hugging wine makers until I realized we had a growing number of biodynamic and organic producers on our list (Marked with ♦), none who advertise the fact on the label! These are among the top growers in the world, passionate people who make wonderful wines that express their terroir all in harmony with nature.

*Most of our wines are directly imported * from France especially from Bordeaux, Burgundy, Rhone, Alsace and Languedoc – Roussillon, with the intention on offering both quality & value. All the producers are visited and each wine carefully tasted with the help of my Brother-in-Law, Vincent Avril, wine grower in Chateauneuf-du-Pape.*

The half bottle, dessert wines & large bottle selection is at the back of our list. We have also imported a selection of excellent Italian Estate & South African Wines, all of which are well worth trying.

Wines are chosen to deliver a good blend of quality, at excellent prices. Spending is no guarantee of quality, careful tasting however is!

Go n'olfaidh tu do shath.

VINCENT AVRIL

Châteauneuf-du-Pape 'Clos des Papes',

The Clos des Papes originally formed part of the papal vineyards, first started bottling its wine as Clos des Papes in 1896 under the auspices of Paul Avril, whose family had been producing wine in the region since the 17th century. Paul was succeeded by his son Régis Avril and his grandson Paul Avril, who ran the winery from 1963 to 1987 and played an integral role in the formation of the Châteauneuf-du-Pape appellation. Having contributed greatly to the reputation and success of Rhone wines, Paul sadly passed away in 2009 at the age of 72. His son Paul-Vincent carried on the Clos des Papes legacy, since 1987 Vincent has built the "Clos des Papes" to iconic status, working the vineyard organically and winning the Wine Spectator "Number 1 Wine of the World" in 2007 for the 2005 vintage.

Although the 2005 and 2007 vintages of Clos des Papes are almost universally agreed to be two of the best wines that the estate has ever produced, the 2009 has more finesse and elegance. The vintage received a not-to-be-shrugged at 95 points from Robert Parker, who describes it "as unquestionably a top-flight seductive wine. Every foudre I tasted was beautifully pure displaying a deep ruby/plum color, sweet kirsch and black raspberry fruit, full body, decent acidity and sweet, velvety tannins."

The 2010 Châteauneuf-du-Pape Blanc may be one the finest white wine ever produced in Clos des Papes. An equal part blend of six different grapes, it exhibits terrific fruit intensity, lots of quince, anise, and nectarine and white peach notes, a full-bodied mouth feel.

DOMAINE RAMONET Burgundy

"Père" Ramonet was more than a character. He was, to use the old cliché – but it is true in this instance – a legend in his own lifetime. More or less from scratch, by dint of sheer hard work and a genius for wine, he built up one of the finest white wine domains in Burgundy. Today the name Ramonet is synonymous with top Chardonnay. The allocations for bottles are fought over, for every collector considers it his or her right to own some. Pierre Ramonet died in 1994 at the age of 88. He is much missed, but his echo lives on, and the wines, in the able hands of his grandson Noël and Jean-Claude since the 1984 vintage. They make every fine wines, more importantly, they are also very individual to Ramonet Domaine.

The total now exploited is 17 hectares. The Ramonet red wines from pinot noir are refreshingly direct. They are full, ample and plump, nicely concentrated but nicely succulent fruit at the same time. The whites, on the other hand, are exceptional. They are distinctive, full-bodied and long-lasting. They are rich and masculine, firm and concentrated... magnificent producers of burgundies finest.

"Mortet is a man of passion as well as perfectionism. Touring round his vineyard parcels shows quite plainly his commitment. You feel he knows every single vine personally and the wines, full, generous, multi-dimensional, rich and expansive, have a lot more to them than most. This is a splendid Domaine and the wines are getting better and better."

Clive Coates, MW, Cote D'Or

The wine world truly lost a master when, in January 2006, Denis tragically passed away. His son, Arnaud, had been working alongside the master for a number of vintages to include the brilliant 2005's. His passion and ability will guarantee the Domaine for years to come.
